

Bishop Frank A. White – Short Biography

Bishop Frank Anthone White is a third-generation servant in the Church of God in Christ with more than 50 years of dedicated ministry and leadership. Born to the late Bishop Frank Otha White and Dr. Juliet L. White, he has faithfully served in various capacities ranging from Minister of Music and Pastor to Jurisdictional Prelate and General Board Member of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. As Pastor of the historic Zion Cathedral, Bishop White is recognized as a visionary leader committed to spiritual growth, community empowerment, and youth development through numerous impactful ministries and programs.

In addition to his extensive ministry work, Bishop White is an accomplished educator, author, and civic leader. He has lectured at institutions including Cornell University and Morehouse College, and currently serves on the New York State Interfaith Advisory Council appointed by Governor Kathy Hochul. A published author of Zero Tolerance and Trust: The Currency of the Kingdom, Bishop White continues to impact lives globally through his bold preaching, leadership, and commitment to advancing the Kingdom of God.